SUMMARY

I am Moulika Barri, a dedicated MTech student specializing in VLSI at GITAM College, with a BTech in Computer Science Engineering from Bapatla Women's Engineering College, I've developed a foundation in programming, algorithms, and software development.

And my passion lies in the VLSI (Very Large Scale Integration) domain, where I aim to leverage my skills to contribute to the design, development, and innovation of cutting-edge semiconductor technologies.

I'm excited to integrate my CSE background with VLSI expertise, driving innovation and growth in the field.
